Content of the Vote on the Semester Ticket

The members of the student body of the Bonn-Rhein-Sieg University of Applied Sciences vote on the retention of the semester ticket in its current form.

Elegibility

Every member of the student body, who is enrolled at the Hochschule Bonn-Rhein-Sieg University of Applied Sciences on 16 October 2023 and is listed in the student register, is eligible to vote. Second and guest students are not eligible to vote.

A copy of the student register is now available to the public in the libraries in Sankt Augustin and Rheinbach as well as the reception in Hennef.

All students eligible to vote have to present their photo ID at the vote. All students of the university can only exercise their right to vote in the location of their student council.

Every eligible voter can object to the validity of the vote within 14 days of the announcement of results. Stating the reasons, the objection is to be sent to the student parliament in writing to stupa@h-brs.de.

Presentation of the Vote

According to the decision of the student parliament on 01 August 2023 a Vote will be held. In a vote all members of the student body are eligible to vote. Resolutions decided by the majority of a vote are binding to the organs of the student body if at least 20 % of the members of the student body are in favour.

Student Register

In the student register all students eligible to vote are listed. Students not listed cannot participate in the vote. A copy of the student register is now available to the public in the libraries in Sankt Augustin and Rheinbach as well as the reception in Hennef. All students have the right to object against the correctness of the student register. This objection is to be sent to the head of the student council at stupa@h-brs.de.

The student parliament will decide about possible objections promptly. The deadline to access the student register and receipt of possible objections against the student register is Friday, 10 November 2023 at 12 p.m.
